

TEGUISE MARKET

Tegüise is the old capital of Lanzarote and the venue of the Sunday market.

Also known as "la Villa" the town has a unique charm. Many of its buildings dating back to the 17th century displaying the beautiful carvings in wood and stone around the doors and windows, so, don't forget your camera!

Every Sunday, locals and tourists alike visit the town to try their skills at bartering.

Many different stalls line the old, cobbled streets with all sorts of goods including; clothes, shoes, ceramics, handbags, paintings, toys, and many other crafts. Don't forget to haggle!!! All of the shops and bars are open too!!

In the centre of the town, the church square, two groups of musicians entertain everyone throughout the morning with panpipe music and folklore dancing.

You will have approximately 3 hours in the market before returning to your pick-up points in early afternoon.
